

DSFS Conducts Spring School Tour Program

During April, May and June the Delaware State Fire School again conducted its school field trip program for area schools.

Eight schools visited the Fire School on seven days with almost 600 people in attendance.

Children got to practice home fire escape, discuss hazards around their homes, discuss first aid, see what the role of a firefighter is and get a close up look at fire behavior.

Pictured: Instructor Katie Gearing demonstrates boarding and collaring a patient as it would take place at the scene of a MVC